DIANA HEARS

TOPICS 'ROUND TOWN . . . The Soviets asking Mo Reagan at the womanfest in Nairobi, "How can we possibly make you walk out again?" . . . Whoever is "Susan," Teddy Kennedy's new mop-topped Hyannis Port flame? . . . Princess Chantal of France tiptoeing to town next week. (Yes. Ear noticed the French Revolution, too. But let's all pretend we didn't, for a day or two) . . . The Advantages of the Actor as President in times of Trouble, to communicate the Right Stuff. Future Hot Hollywood names batted about the chatter-circuit this week included Patty Duke — she's running for the President of the Screen Actors Guild, and played in "Hail to the Chief;" Dennis Weaver, the satin-voiced Veep of SAG; and Cliff Robertson. ("Wouldn't Dina Merrill be a Divine First Lady?") . . . Iraq, shyly sliding into the Social Spotlight after a year of Low Profile Diplomatic Relations. (Did you notice the terribly arty Marta Iskander, nee Countess Czernin of Czechoslovakia, tossed a wee Iraqi Pouring? That was to help them get comfy with us) . . . What was Aram Bakshian, former First Chief Speechwriter at the White House, doing outside the CIA in Langley, with a Canadian tube crew? . . . How, while we moan about New Coke, La Belle France whimpers about Ancients Perriers: By a quirky French law, they can't get the Nouveau "zested" Perrier water for amour or argent . . . Nancy Reagan taking Ron the flight jacket from her stint at sea aboard the Aircraft Carrier yesterday; he, still aglow from that first heavenly post-surgery shower and shampoo, was tickled pink. Everyone is behaving beautifully. Read on.
